THE "GOOD OLD DAYS"

In the old days, when you were hit with a serious illness, you might spend only a dollar for a prescription ... but you were likely in bed for three costly weeks, had six visits from the doctor, lost a month's wages, took a whole assortment of other medicines, too. Was that cheap? Today, thanks to new drug discoveries, you need perhaps one visit from the doctor, fewer down in hours, you're out of bed in a couple of days, back on the job in a week. Today's prescription costs you more, yet ... and isn't it a bargain!

Volunteers For Nixon To Parade In Area Saturday

Over 100 persons are expected to take part in a parade Saturday sponsored by the Volunteers for Nixon.

The motorized caravan will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Bellemore Village shopping center and wind its way through the Quad-Cities during the afternoon. It will be led by a police escort, and numerous floats and special cars are planned.

Riding in the lead-car will be a man portraying Abraham Lincoln. Another highlight will be a car containing two local teenagers designated as President Richard Nixon and First Lady Pat Nixon.

Vehicles in the parade will depict various issues of the current presidential campaign, the local Volunteers for Nixon organization has announced. All persons interested in participating in the volunteer effort may do so by assembling in the parking lot at the Quad-Cities City high school, near Fehling road, at 1 p.m. Saturday, it was explained.

Route Of Parade
Plans call for the caravan to proceed from the shopping center down Madison avenue and Niedringhaus avenue, going through the business district and Lincoln Place before turning toward the West Granite area.

From Cayuga street, the units will move onto West 19th street and then 19th street, continuing to Madison avenue and traversing that street through Madison, reaching Broadway, the parade will advance as far as the Venice city hall reaching there at about 2:30 p.m.

Turning right, the floats will go down Klein street and Weaver street, touring North Veterans before returning to Madison by way of Market street. The parade then will move through Madison and the downtown Granite City area, concluding the route at the Bellemore shopping center.

The Volunteers for Nixon also will be active Friday evening, distributing state university and public welfare bond issue literature in Quad-City business districts.

Torchlight Drive Monday
On Monday evening, the group will join a torchlight cavalcade of cars beginning in the Alton area and traveling through Madison county communities including the Quad-Cities.

A telephone canvass is underway here under auspices of the organization, sampling public opinion and urging a large turnout at the election polls next Tuesday.

The headquarters at 1222 Nineteenth street is open daily. Campaign material is available there for the public, and support of the activities is welcomed, it was announced.

On election day, transportation to polls and a "baby-sitter" service will be furnished, without obligation. Such assistance can be requested by contacting the Volunteers for Nixon office.

Labor Council To Write Board Again On Teacher

An exchange of letters involving a school teacher was discussed last night by the AFT-CIO Trades and Labor Council, which authorized that another letter be sent to the Granite City school board.

Edwin Reiske, president, said the discussion brought out a belief that the teacher was singled out for a letter from the board because of his union activity, and that the board should agree to meet on the issue with a committee from the council.

Additional Disaster Equipment Recommended

Ten Madison disaster staff members conferred last night at the Madison recreation center and decided to recommend purchase of additional first-aid and communications equipment to round out the disaster equipment already on hand.

The group also discussed preparations made by St. Elizabeth Hospital to cope with victims of a natural disaster. E. A. Friedman, disaster chairman, and Harry R. Johnson, civil defense director, participated in the meeting.

Purse With $40 Lost

A brown zipper coin purse containing $40 and car keys was lost by Mrs. Virginia Howland, 25, Rural Route One, Tuesday somewhere between the 1600 block of Second street and the Grenzer Homes project, Madison police were notified.

BALLOON FESTOONED COSTUME of a little boy in the Venice Halloween parade drew much attention as he marched along Broadway. The marchers concluded festivities at a huge bonfire on the Venice high school athletic field at the end of the parade.

Hallowe'en Weather 'Ghoul' As 650 Join Ghostly Parades

It was a gusty, windwept night for ghostly parading Monday.

But it was Hallowe'en and a veritable shoal of assorted creatures from the ether regions joined in the annual march-abouts at Granite City and at Venice.

A miscellany of something like 350 costumed spooks, clowns, satanic imps, beatniks and what-have-you took part in Granite City's wind-blown, goose-pimpling procession.

At Venice, a similar congress of 300 witches, figures from Mother Goose and Allos in Wonderland and werewolves shared in parade fun and a wienner roast. And here there was a giant bonfire.

Vandalism At Minimum

Hallowe'en hooliganism and vandalism were at a minimum. Police attributed this to the community events and to the unpropitious weather. Downtown display windows in Granite City were remarkably free of soapy scrawls and inscriptions Tuesday. Here again, merchants attributed this to the fact that Hallowe'en art and artistry had been given an earlier outlet in the prize contest sponsored by the Associated Retailers and a Civic Association, Inc.

But, as the police blotters revealed, Hallowe'en '60 was not without its more sleazy side. Lowering skies and sleet squalls not only pared down the parades participation from the expected 1200, but likewise cut into the number of onlookers flanking the routes. It was a night more suited to Hallowe'en indoor parties—and there were numbers of them—than outdoor parading and parade-watching. Estimates vary from 1200 to 2100 the numbers of spectators viewing the separate Hallowe'en columns. Many of the onlookers saw the marchers from the comfort of cars parked along the curbing.

14th Annual Parade
Sponsored by Loyal Order of Moose Lodge 272, Granite City's 14th annual Hallowe'en parade led by the Granite City high school band, got under way and ended at city hall, after the four of the business district. Here, prizes were given out in open-handed generosity.

There were cash awards for outstanding individual and group costumes, and an additional 110 merchandise prizes for participants, young and old. The Granite City prizewinners as selected by an panel of parade jurors and announced by Clarence Meyenberg, representing the sponsoring fraternal order.

Best dressed: individual, Mary Hutchins (a comely bride); group, Jeffrey and Susan Cadvin (wolf and witch) and Lynda Cox.

Most comical: individual, Dave Thompson (Nature Boy); group, David Shoraga and Vickie Couch.

Most original: individual, Karl Markovich (Spirit of Hallowe'en); group, Koesterer family, father John, mother, Louise, youngsters, Dale, Allen, Connie and Barry (The Green Hornet).

The Hornet, a towering figure with a trailing tail, had a "blow-down" during the parade, and became disemboweled to the glee of the young fry onlookers.

Venetian Winners
Novelties, games, confections, merchandise awards and variety store items were distributed among the young participants in Venice's parade. After the care-free procession made its way through the midtown sector and along Broadway to the high school athletic field, a huge bonfire group, touched off. Too, smaller cooking fires were lighted for roasting the hot dogs, which along with buns were distributed free to an estimated 500.

Minion Morris, who shared with the high school Student Council the co-sponsorship of the 10th annual Venetian route, was the Hallowe'en philanthropist as donor of the eats. Additionally, there was a tent of "gypsy" fortune tellers and other mid-way attractions.

Water Co. Office Workers Strike Enters 3rd Day

Office workers continued today to picket the Granite City office of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. as their strike went into its third day.

There was no resultant interruption of water service in the Quad-Cities, and the utility's manager declared "it is agreed this strike will not penalize the public."

Strikers are members of the Office Employees International Local 130 and the walk-out was called Tuesday after a breakdown in contract negotiations.

Pickets were also in line at the utility's East St. Louis and Belleville offices and at a distribution center at East St. Louis. The latter line affects 55 members of the Laborers Local 104, which is respecting the picket lines.

Emergency Calls Answered

A skeleton staff is answering emergency calls there, however. E. Clinton Smith, manager of the utility, said today "both sides will do everything possible to assure normal service and the laborers also will carry out all emergencies. It is agreed this strike will not penalize the public."

A total of about 40 office workers joined in the strike. A spokesman for the local strikers said today that outside maintenance men here continued on the job. It was not necessary for them to cross the picket lines, it was pointed out, since necessary supplies and equipment were taken to them by management.

No new negotiation meeting had been scheduled for today, a spokesman said at noon. Both sides are subject to call by John Keitner of the Federal Mediation Service.

A union officer today told the strikers are seeking an 8% wage increase and a 16-month contract. The company has offered an increase of 10 cents an hour.

Sharon Maurer, Bob Nash, Roomona La Vice, Gary Callender, Mike McCord, Sandra DuBoise, Sam Cooper, Bob Blattner and Jim Hayden.

Miss Edwards noted among the prize winners were a costumed leopard, bat, hobo, Indians, numerous skeletons, witches in a veritable covey, a Japanese girl, balloon man, beatniks, Minnie Mouse, a scarecrow, Sleeping Beauty and skeletons.

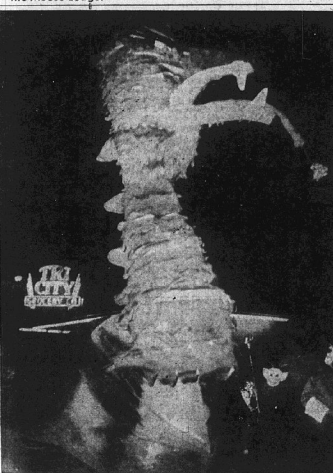

Both the Venetian and Granite City costumed revelers ran a spectrum of imagination, ingenuity and of borrowings from folklore and legend. In the ignitering of parades, in consequence, there appeared:

Clowns, Harpies, Superman, a Chinaman with pigtales, Huckleberry Hound, cowboys, Beauty and the Beast, a covey of clowns, harpies, Indians, kittens, rabbits, a pirate, ballerinas, dominoes, mechanical men, space travelers, a galaxy of witches, Uncle Sam, skeletons galore, cave men and cave women and felons in striped convict garb.

Bandmen and police escorts joined in both processions, and the Venetian column had added entries, entry of fire wagons, Legionnaires and the Legion's amphibious "duck". Granite City Mayor Leonard R. Davis struck the keynote of the community events in a short talk in which he paid tribute to the sponsors and had high commendation for the outpouring of John and Robert Blitney, Mike Blitney, Charles Barritt, Mary

A TALL MAN, or rather a small boy with a pole, was among witches and handsome dandies marching in Monday night's Hallowe'en parade in Granite City, sponsored by the Moose Lodge.

GREEN HORNET OR DRAGON, with a nine-foot paper head, one of the most spectacular group costumes in the Moose Lodge Hallowe'en parade in Granite City Monday night. Wind caught the dragon about midway through the parade and the marchers were forced to drop out.

Jaycees Plan 'Open House' For Nov. 16

An "open house" for prospective members will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 16 at the Elks Lodge rathskeller. It was announced last night by Earl Parsons, president of the Granite City Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Jaycees are preparing to launch a membership campaign, and persons 21 to 35 years of age are invited to attend the open house.

Parsons said there will be games, entertainment and refreshments, and also a brief meeting to explain the purposes and activities of the local Jay-night.

Trades Council Hears Talk By Rep. Simon

A group of about 70 delegates to the Tri-City Trades & Labor Council meeting last night at the Labor Temple heard State Rep. Paul Simon, who spoke on the forthcoming Universities and State Welfare bond issues to be voted upon next Tuesday.

Rep. Simon said he opposed the method in which the funds were to be secured and told the delegates the programs could be carried out on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Trades Council President Edwin Heiske said the delegates who earlier had endorsed both bond issues, did not change their stand. He pointed out that of the Universities Bond Issue, $3,000,000 is to go for development of the Southern Illinois University southwestern campus between the Quad-Cities and Edwardsville, and that $8,000,000 of the Welfare bond issue is to go to the Alton State Hospital.

The delegates voted to support the striking office workers of the East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co., members of AFL-CIO Local 130, and advised members of the council not to cross the picket line set up at the company's office here.

Reiske announced that at the Nov. 16 meeting the guest speaker will be Mrs. Jo Crouch, who will outline the functions of the local Mental Health Clinic.

SIU Students Start Marathon Run From Area's SW Campus

Southern Illinois University students joined students from the other five Illinois state universities in an Olympic-style torch marathon beginning yesterday as a plea for passage of the State Universities Bond Issue on Nov. 8.

Bearing lighted torches, about 700 students from the campuses of the six state universities will converge on Chicago's Loop Saturday noon.

More than 50 students from Southern Illinois University's Southwestern Campus volunteered as runners to "bear the torch of higher education."

Starting from the entrance to the new campus southwest of Edwardsville at 4 p.m. on Wednesday, they ran along U. S. 66 (By-Pass) to Edwardsville.

In Edwardsville they left By-Pass 66 briefly to circle the Madison county court house, and then proceeded northeast to Hannibal.

Runners are working in teams, each one running one-half mile at a time, with each participant totaling two or more miles.

At Hannibal the torch bearers switched to Illinois Route Four and running all night, passed through Worden, Stanton, Gillespie, Carlinville, Girard, Virden and Auburn, arrived in Springfield at 10 a.m. today.

From Springfield the route will be to Decatur, 47 to 10 and then into Champaign, where runners from Edwardsville will meet marathon runners from SIU at Carbondale and the other five Illinois state institutions of higher learning—Eastern, Northern, Western and Illinois State Normal Universities, and the University of Illinois.

After spending tonight at Champaign, runners of all six state universities will set out at 9 a.m. Friday on the last leg of the trip for a torch lighting ceremony in front of the Illinois State Building in Chicago.

Students expect to be welcomed in Chicago Saturday noon by a reception committee headed by Gov. William G. Stratton, gubernatorial candidate Otto Kerner, Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, and the heads of the six state universities.

As the runners arrive, their torches will be used to light a gigantic torch. The marathon was planned by the students to "Keep the Torch of Higher Learning Burning" by calling attention to the $195 million Universities Bond Issue, to be decided by Illinois voters Nov. 8.

A Halloween turn-out of between 550 to 600, including 125 youngsters, was attracted to the Masonic Temple Monday for "Family Night" funning and "spooky" revelry.

There were cash prizes for Hallowe'en costumes; community singing, other programmed music and refreshments.

Sponsored by Granite City Lodge 877 and Triple Lodge 835 AF&M, the Hallowe'en party was co-chaired by Peter Staicoff and J. H. Kenner. Preston Ridings is worshipful

With Randy is her father, Lee Adams. To the left is Peter Staicoff, co-chairman with J. H. Kenner of the party given by Granite City's two Masonic lodges.

"SPIRIT OF HALLOWE'EN" and the Green Hornet won awards in the most original division Monday night. Karl Markovich was the Hallowe'en spirit; the Koesterer family entered the fierce "Green Hornet" figure at the right.

Candles To Clothes Racks—JA Center Producing Them

Granite City's Junior Achievement center at 2003 Madison avenue is going full blast again.

Fourteen production companies and a banking service make up the student organization this year, and Center Director Louis DeWitt said last night that preliminary indications point to the best year in the history of local operations.

Elect Officers

The companies, three or four of which meet each night, Monday through Thursday at the center, are already busily making the products which they hope to sell to the public. Stock in the miniature corporations is being sold, and corporation charters have been drawn up and approved. The final four companies, those meeting on Thursday night—are scheduled to complete the election of officers tonight.

Average weekly attendance at the center since operations began has been 227 achievers and 58 advisors, members of the latter group coming from the various area industries which sponsor the JA companies.

The center work day lineup Monday through Thursday, with the company's name, sponsoring firm and type of product being manufactured follows:

UF Aid To Heart Surgery, Research To Be Considered

The Social Planning Council of the United Fund decided Tuesday afternoon to recommend United Fund assistance to two programs in the field of heart disease—financial assistance for those unable to afford needed heart surgery and contributions toward surgical research work.

It was brought out during the meeting at the YMCA that St. Elizabeth Hospital and the Jewish Hospital in St. Louis cooperate on local heart surgery cases, with the operations conducted at the latter hospital.

Those meeting with the planning council were Dr. Felicia Koch, representing the UF executive committee; and three Jewish Hospital staff members, Dr. Martin Bergman, Dr. Herbert Zimmerman and Dr. Martin Perera.

The two favorable votes by the council are to be discussed at United Fund executive committee and board of directors meetings this fall.

Also discussed Tuesday was proposed establishment of a clearing house for distribution of aid to needy families at Christmas. A meeting of interested organizations that participate in such giving was called for next Monday.

The year's first bills for polio assistance were approved for payment. They amounted to $38 for a brace on a request forwarded by the AFI-CIO Community Services and $22 for orthopedic shoes on a request submitted through the Catholic Charities.

A financial report covering 1950 through Oct. 31 showed $7,717 spent for health care purposes by the Social Planning Council. A breakdown of this amount follows:

Mental Health Clinic, $4,607; cancer patients, $1,376; cystic fibrosis, $1,122; multiple sclerosis, $290; heart, $229; general health relief, $60.

The balance in the health services fund after deduction of these expenses is $21,236.

Committeemen Plan Torchlight Demo Auto Parade

Quid-City Democratic precinct committeemen are organizing what they hope will be one of the largest local auto parades in history for this Saturday. Arranged to encourage enthusiasm for next Tuesday's election, the torchlight caravan will begin at 4 p.m. and may last three hours.

It will begin at the county party headquarters at 1710 Madison avenue and return there after winding through as many precincts as possible throughout the Quad-Cities. Exact route has not yet been determined, but Madison and Venice will be included.

Flares will be carried, and those participating will include all committeemen, all county candidates and one state candidate, who is as yet undesignated, Robert Gibson, Granite City Democratic chairman, reported.

A $25 prize will be awarded for the best decorated car, and a similar prize will go to the committeeman with the largest number of cars representing his precinct. All persons wishing to participate will be welcomed, he said.

Cars will assemble prior to the parade along 17th street and on a lot adjacent to the headquarters building. Some open cars will be included, and there will be loudspeakers to provide parade music.

Elected To Safety Committee Offices

Eugene R. Burnett, 2245 Lee avenue, was elected to serve as member of the non-ferrous committee of the metals section of the National Safety Council at a meeting of the National Safety Council on Oct. 17-21 in Chicago. Burnett is supervisor of safety and security of the Dow Metal Products Co.

Also elected at the meeting was Dale A. Blackwell of St. Louis, who will serve as chairman of the off-the-job safety committee of the Food and beverage section of the National Safety Council. He is supervisor of safety and sanitation of the Union Star and Refining Co. The National Safety Council is a federally chartered, non-profit association dedicated to safety in all fields of accident prevention.

75 Hurt in Area Accidents During October

Seventy-five persons were injured in Quad-City area traffic accidents during October, making it the next to worst month this year and the worst October for injuries on record.

The injuries, which included 24 on the Oct. 21 weekend, brought the year's tabulation to 662, highest for any ten-month period. Unless there is a sharp drop in November and December, the one-year injury record of 734 set last year will be shattered, and possibly long before Dec. 31.

A statistical breakdown for October 1960 shows 149 traffic mishaps, the 75 hurt and two persons killed.

Traffic Victims
Victims were Charles F. Rehms, 52, Granite City, serving in the Navy, who died Oct. 22 after his car struck a bridge abutment at Willow Grove, Pa., and Joseph E. Henry, 20, St. Louis, who was killed Oct. 30 in a head-on collision on State Rd. Route 35 at the curve east of Route 162. The month's figures resulted in ten-month totals of 1386 collisions, 662 injuries and 16 deaths, indicating monthly averages this year of 138.66 and 1.6. Thus October was a more severe month than any of the three averages.

These listings of 1386, 662 and 16, when compared with previous years, indicate a reduction in the fatality rate but substantial increases in both the accident and injury categories.

1386 Mishaps This Year

Contrasting with 1959 and 1960, there were 1261 mishaps and 605 hurt in the first ten months of 1959. Statistics for 1960 show figures were 1386 and 662. In 1958, 108 accidents and 61 injuries resulted. In 1957, 145 accidents and 65 injuries resulted. In 1956, 69 accidents and 41 injuries resulted. In 1955, 123 accidents and 42 injuries resulted. In 1954, 75 accidents and 36 injuries resulted.

It still may set a new low for recent years. There were 24 deaths on area streets and highways in each of 1959 and 1960, and 23 in 1958. Record high was 44 in 1954, the only time that a level of 28 was exceeded.

Monthly totals this year have been one each in January, February, March and July, two in October, three in May, seven in August and none in April, June or September.

Disaster Alert At GC Steel Plant Saturday

A simulated tornado alert will take place sometime Saturday morning at Granite City Steel Co., with 50 to 100 employees participating to test the industry's disaster preparedness.

Plans call for the mock storm to strike the mold foundry, up and 840 and 365 in 1953. Except for the month of August, when seven deaths occurred, 1960 has been a year of one of the lowest fatality tolls in history.

Groups Volunteer To Ring Bells At SA Xmas Kettles

Two groups of bell-ringers to man local Salvation Army Christmas kettles during the holiday season already offered to donate their services. It was announced during a meeting of the Salvation Army board of directors yesterday as the group moved closer to finalizing its plans for the Christmas season.

Members of a Tri-City club will man the kettles on Nov. 26, and the following week members of Utility Workers Local 405 have offered their services.

Present at the board meeting was Randall Robertson, chairman of the Salvation Army "Tree of Lights" fund-raising campaign this year. The campaign kickoff is set for 2 p.m. on Nov. 28, with the tree to be located on the Granite City post office lawn. Music at the program will be provided by the Salvation Army songsters and band.

This year's "Tree of Lights" goal has been established at $4500, or 180 lights. Board member Roy Lynn will have charge of obtaining and erecting the traditional fir tree. A $25 donation will turn on one light.

Committee Named For Madison Smorgasbord

Committees for the Madison Rotary club's fifth annual benefit smorgasbord, to be held on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 13, at the Madison recreation center, were appointed by Chairman Leo Schermer at yesterday's meeting of the club. It was announced that tickets are being sold by club members.

Program Chairman Harry R. Johnson introduced two members, Harry Theobald and Frank Fijan, who explained factors affecting automobile, building and other types of insurance.

Groups in Madison and Venice, Pa. are also being formulated for the organization of similar

Plan Protects Persons With Allergies, Medical Problems

In 1963, thirteen-year-old Linda Collins of Turlock, Calif., submitted to a routine scratch test against allergy to tetanus antitoxin serum, and reacted violently.

Rushed to a hospital where she was in an oxygen tent for three days before recovering from shock and impaired functioning of her heart and lungs, the incident became the reason for establishment of a plan which can possibly save needless suffering, jailing and even death for persons who are allergic to certain drugs, antibiotics and narcotics, who are taking narcotics, or who are hemophiliacs, diabetics or epileptics.

For Linda's parents are Dr. and Mrs. Marion C. Collins, who were abroad at the time of her illness. Dr. Collins realized that a full shot of tetanus would have been fatal to his daughter, and set about searching for a system which would warn personnel of her allergy.

The final result was the establishment of "Medic-Alert," an international not-for-profit foundation whose sole purpose was to provide persons with medical "Achilles heels" some effective type of protection.

Wrist Or Neck Amulet
The protection is a simple but attractive wrist bracelet or necklace with the words "Medic-Alert" printed on the face of the metal. The bracelet and the wearer's warning message stamped on the underside, "I am allergic to penicillin," "I am taking drugs," etc.

Locally, the medic alert idea has been taken up and is being promoted by Sister Teresa, a member of the Sisters of Divine Providence and anesthetist at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Recalls Local Incident
"It seems worthwhile and vital to me," Sister Teresa says, "because I recall vividly a case where we lost a patient who had an allergy which went undetected until it was too late."

The patient, she recalls was admitted to the hospital with an inflamed appendix, and prepared for surgery immediately. Preparations included penicillin doses about one-half hour before the patient entered surgery.

"I asked the patient just before surgery if there were any known allergies, and the reply was 'Yes, I'm allergic to penicillin.' The shot had already been given, and the patient experienced a severe reaction on the operating table.

"There was swelling of the throat and windpipe, and the patient actually quit breathing momentarily," Sister Teresa related.

"The patient survived the operation but died about a week later. I feel as a direct result of the penicillin shot."

Most hospitals keep records of the known allergies of previous patients. St. Elizabeth included but what happens when an unconscious auto-crash victim is rushed to the emergency ward of any hospital and doctors feel the administering of certain drugs or immediate surgery is necessary?

Unless the victim wears a medic-alert amulet, and such instances are still rare in this country, hospitals must proceed on the assumption that no "Achilles heel" exists in hopes of saving the patient's life.

40,000 Identified
Today, about 40,000 Americans are wearing the bracelets or neck tags, and each has a com-

"MEDIC-ALERT" wrist bracelet, showing face with warning emblem and underside, where wearer's medical problem, together with his name, his doctor's name and telephone number or the telephone of the Medic Alert Foundation may be printed.

Record of his or her allergies on file at the foundation's California headquarters, a record which includes an individual's name.

Many professional persons have indicated that they hope the medic alert emblem will become a universally recognized symbol, since scientists warn that as antibiotics are discovered and used in increasing numbers, at some time every human will be allergic to at least one of today's or tomorrow's drugs.

Sister Teresa said some reactions consist of nothing more than a skin rash or hives, accompanied with severe itching. The patient may also experience difficulty in breathing, and in more serious cases "the patient may die within a few minutes after the administration of a drug," Sister Teresa added.

"It is usually from suffocation of the throat and windpipe can occur, and there is simply no way to get air into the patient's lungs," she continued.

Why wear the amulet, isn't it an inconvenience?

Life Or Death Matter
Not to a person whose life depends upon the timing of a life-or-death message should they be stricken unconscious from accidental injury or illness. The foundation is currently carrying on a campaign to inform doctors, dentists, law enforcement officers and hospitals of the purpose of the amulet.

Many are already co-operating with the program; others have not learned of it yet. With that last fact in mind, Sister Teresa is about to begin contacting representatives of local civic, fraternal and religious groups in hopes of interesting them in promotion of a local medic-alert campaign.

How many Quad-City residents are allergic to one or more drugs? How many are taking psychotropic energizers, tranquilizers or depressants? (Varying and abnormal reactions may result when the anesthesia is administered if certain stimulants or depressants are being taken by the patient.)

How many local people have an unusual blood type? (It takes 20 minutes to determine blood type through testing—sometimes 20 minutes is too long.)

Do most people know that a second shot of tetanus antitoxin can bring almost instant death to one person in every ten who has been inoculated with this serum?

Allergy May Be Acquired
Are residents aware that allergies do not have to be built into the body at birth, but may be acquired?

And how about certain people

UF Campaign

G. W. Hoelscher reported $118,675 and explained this to be more than $4000 above last year's comparable divisional total.

Challenging the industry division for front rank in subscriptions was the continuous giving National Lead Co., a corporate division, reporting a total of $1018.

In reporting the professional division for entry on the tally board, Paul Kelly gave $4940 as the total. He said this was in excess of that of a year ago.

Included in the grand total but chalked up on a separate card here are some of the individual and group entries made Wednesday:

Dow Chemical Co. entries were $4600; Union Starb & Refining Co. employees, $4500; National Container Corp. employees, $800; National Lead Co., a corporate gift, $1000; Smith-Rowland Co., likewise a corporate subscription, $250; organizations, $335.

UPC Employees 100%.

It was noted that Illinois Power Co. office workers were enrolled, 100% strong, in UF giving.

Meanwhile, Robert Dant, known as "Mr. IBM" or the tally clerk, was chalking the entries on the blackboards flanking the dining hall. He and John D. Solenberg, UF executive secretary, became the cynosure of all eyes when it came time for the final addition.

It stood at $280,455, or exactly $5006 short of the goal!

Then came the final thank you of Chairman Hamilton and Thomas Sullivan, UF organization president. Sullivan expressed his appreciation for a "tremendous job" and explained that the drive would go over top with a little more effort.

Speaking for the government division of the campaign, Co-Chairman Klotzmeister said he again wanted to draw attention to the enlistment of Granite City municipal workers in a continuous giving or "30 Minute Club."

Representatives of all major departments are on the board of governors, of which Police Officer Bailey is chairman.

Farm Column

By TRUMAN W. MAY
Madison County Farm Adviser

A comparatively new weed, giant foxtail, is beginning to take over in many areas of the county. It appears that if farmers do not take stock of this weed and plan its control it will become much more serious than Johnson grass, as it spreads much more rapidly and control measures are more difficult.

Giant foxtail is an annual, but it produces a tremendous amount of seed which can stay in the ground for 4 or 5 years and still germinate. It can be distinguished from the more common types by its tall growth, long drooping heads and wide leaves that are sharp and rough on the edges if you run a leaf through your fingers.

Giant foxtail can be controlled with a small grain and cultivation method similar to the one recommended for Johnson grass. That is, plow the ground following harvest after the grass has made some growth. Growth could be encouraged by discing the ground immediately after harvest. Work the ground down following plowing to encourage seed germination and then before this growth goes to seed disc to kill this growth and repeat this procedure whenever necessary until frost. If the field is to go to corn or soybeans the next year, delay planting until you can kill at least one crop of spring growth.

Pre-emergence sprays can be used to supplement this program until the foxtail is well cleaned out. If pre-emergence sprays are used they must be applied with care as they can damage the crops if not used according to directions.

Application of 80 lbs. of nitrogen per acre, side-dressed when the corn was about knee high, made a tremendous difference in the yield of a field grown by Vernon Mienner of Leet township.

Plots of similar size harvested in treated and untreated areas in the field had yield differences of more than 100 per cent. The corn receiving 80 lbs. of nitrogen per acre as anhydrous ammonia yielded at the rate of 97 bu. per acre. The untreated area made only 40 bu. per acre.

There was also a great difference in size of ears. Average ear weight in the corn getting nitrogen was 82 of a pound, while the average on the untreated portion was only 24 pound, or half-pound ears from the nitrogen and quarter-pound ears on the untreated.

Nitrogen does not always make such a great difference in corn yields, of course, but almost always it will pay for itself several times over where the soil is deficient in nitrogen.

The field on the Mienner farm was given a basic treatment in 1959 of 3 tons limestone, 100 lbs. rock phosphate and 250 lbs. potash per acre. In 1959 it had 200 lbs. each of 0-45-0 and 0-0-6, plus 65 lbs. nitrogen side-dressed on the corn. Before corn planting in 1960, 200 lbs. of 6-24-24 was applied.

Dairy farmers and their wives are being invited to attend the district annual meeting of the American Dairy Association at the Salem Church Parish Hall at Alhambra, Nov. 10.

The purpose of the meeting according to Ralph Rogier, Highland, state director, is to get reports from the ADA staff on the 1960 program and to review the 1961 advertising and merchandising program. There will be an opportunity for the members to ask questions. During the meeting one state director and seven district directors will be elected. The meeting starts at 10 a.m.

A free dairy lunch will be served at noon.

A new pole-frame turkey shed was built by Robert W. Lutz of New Douglas in 165 ft. long and 50 ft. wide. Another similar shed on the Lutz farm is 300 ft. long. He has about 4000 turkeys, with a laying flock of 1800.

A pole-frame barn for dairy cattle is under construction on the farm of Selma Redding of Leet township to replace a barn destroyed by the windstorm of late June. Most farmers across the northern half of the county and some in other areas had to replace and repair buildings and homes because of the storm damage.

Use of pole-frame buildings for low-cost, efficient structures continues to increase on Madison county farms.

Last week's freeze, the first of the season, came the morning of October 20, which is generally regarded on the average date of the first killing frost, so it is right on schedule. Only a very few fields of late-planted soybeans and corn were injured.

The value of treating corn with a soil insecticide was again demonstrated this year in a field grown by Walter Steiner of Leet township. Corn where the soil had aldrin applied at planting time in 1959 yielded 110 bu. per acre. An untreated strip yielded at the rate of 90 bu. per acre. Although the aldrin was applied last year, the carryover effect was enough to control the soil insects for this year's crop. The untreated area had a reduced stand of corn plants due to damage from wireworms in the soil.

The annual meeting of the Illinois State Vegetable Growers' Association will be held at Carbondale Nov. 9 and 10. George Powell of Collinsville is a director of the state association. Observation of National Forest Products Week last week included some information on the importance of the wood industry in Illinois. About 1500 Illinois sawmills cut some 100 million board feet of lumber annually. Another 300 to 400 small mills, often operated on a part-time basis by farmers and others, provide custom sawing services and are a source of much of today's farm lumber.

Illinois ranks high in production of barrels, kegs, tubs and other containers made of wooden staves. In 1957 Illinois was topped by only three states in value of planing mill products (doors, windows, etc.) and by only two states in furniture production.

The state's secondary forest product industries employ more than 40,000 people who manufacture millwork, wooden containers, furniture and other products.

About 1500 Illinois sawmills cut some 100 million board feet of lumber annually. Another 300 to 400 small mills, often operated on a part-time basis by farmers and others, provide custom sawing services and are a source of much of today's farm lumber.

Illinois ranks high in production of barrels, kegs, tubs and other containers made of wooden staves. In 1957 Illinois was topped by only three states in value of planing mill products (doors, windows, etc.) and by only two states in furniture production.

The state's secondary forest product industries employ more than 40,000 people who manufacture millwork, wooden containers, furniture and other products.

Use of pole-frame buildings for low-cost, efficient structures continues to increase on Madison county farms.

Last week's freeze, the first of the season, came the morning of October 20, which is generally regarded on the average date of the first killing frost, so it is right on schedule. Only a very few fields of late-planted soybeans and corn were injured.

The value of treating corn with a soil insecticide was again demonstrated this year in a field grown by Walter Steiner of Leet township. Corn where the soil had aldrin applied at planting time in 1959 yielded 110 bu. per acre. An untreated strip yielded at the rate of 90 bu. per acre. Although the aldrin was applied last year, the carryover effect was enough to control the soil insects for this year's crop. The untreated area had a reduced stand of corn plants due to damage from wireworms in the soil.

The annual meeting of the Illinois State Vegetable Growers' Association will be held at Carbondale Nov. 9 and 10. George Powell of Collinsville is a director of the state association. Observation of National Forest Products Week last week included some information on the importance of the wood industry in Illinois. Guest Day Being Planned By Garden
Study Club

The Garden Study Club met Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Arthur Ransom on Rural Route One for a dessert luncheon and program.

Mrs. Abner Branning, president, conducted the meeting and the members discussed plans for the council meeting and guest day luncheon of Region Five, Garden Clubs of Illinois, to be held Nov. 30 at St. John United Church on Christ on Namekodi road. The speaker for the day will be Mrs. Edward L. Fischer of Overland, Mo., a nationally known lecturer.

MORE ABOUT Voters To Make Many Decisions

ington level — president, vice-president and U. S. senator — and eight state-wide positions. The state posts are governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor of public accounts, attorney general and three University of Illinois trustees.

While the 34 races to be decided on a county or bi-county basis involve only Democratic and Republican competition, the top 11 positions on the ballot have brought out three-way contests between the Democrats, Republicans and Socialist Labor Party.

There will be interest in the county races, but the predominance of the Democratic party in this area has resulted in close contests occurring only on rare occasions. Because of this, most attention will center on the state and national contests, plus the levee district race, where Madison County is in danger of continued lack of representation on the five-member, two-county board.

The president-vice-president pitting will involve John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas. Democrats; Richard M. Nixon of California and Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Republicans; and Eric Hass of New York and Georgia Cozzini, Socialist Labor Party. The three parties appear on the ballot in that order, left to right.

The U. S. senate race pits the Democratic incumbent, Paul H. Kennedy, against Republican Samuel W. Willard. An opposite situation occurs at the gubernatorial level, where the Republican candidates are currently in office. The pairings are: Governor, Edward G. Straton (R) for governor; Samuel H. Shapiro (D) and John William Chapman (R) for lieutenant governor; James R. McLaughlin (D) and Charles F. Carpenter (R) for secretary of state; Michael J. Howlett (D) and Albert S. Smith (R) for state auditor; and William G. Clark (D) and William L. Gould (R) for attorney general.

Opposing candidates for university trustees include Kenneth E. Williamson, Frances Best Watkins and Irving Dillard, Democrats; and Audrey Reavis Peak, C. E. "Ernie" Lovejoy and Thomas O. Mathews, Republicans.

Candidates on the Socialist Labor ticket besides Hass and Mrs. Cozzini are Louis Fisher for senator, Edward C. Gross for governor, Elizabeth Mitroff for lieutenant governor, Gregory P. Lyngas for secretary of state, Stanley L. Provorok for state auditor, George P. Milonas for attorney general and Bernard Campbell, Margaret Deneff and Henry Schilling for university trustees.

Cong. Melvin Price (D) of East St. Louis is opposed by Mrs. Phyllis Stewart Schaffly, Alton, who is not waging an active campaign. Her nomination in the April primary was by write-in votes.

Three of the four candidates for state representatives from Madison county are to be elected. These runnins are three incumbents, Lloyd "Curly" Harris (D) of Granite City, Paul Smith (D) of Alton, and Ralph T. Wharton (R) of Wood River.

Democratic candidates for the levee district board are Thomas F. "Skip" Hennessy of the East St. Louis area and four incumbents, George Duff, Dan E. Costello, John E. Molla and Lawrence T. Tolar, all of East St. Louis.

They are opposed by five Republican candidates, William P. Nichols of Bond road, Madison County, Walter J. Emde of Granite City and Elmo Bush, Robert O. Baldrige and Leindel Phillips, all of East St. Louis.

Four of the five county candidates on the Democratic ticket

Incumbents, They are State Attorney Dick H. Mudge Jr. of Edwardsville, County Auditor John L. Kraynak of Madison, Recorder of Deeds James P. Chapman of Collinsville and Dr. W. W. Billings of Alton, corner of the voting precincts.

The fifth Democratic candidate is Willard V. Portell, which was defeated in the primary election by Circuit Clerk Simon Kellermann Jr. Kellermann later died and Portell was nominated by committeemen of the party.

Miss Esthela Hote, county clerk, will conduct a school of instruction for election judges at 4 p.m. Sunday in the basement auditorium of the Granite City public library. Similar schools will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the county court house in Edwardsville and at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Alton city hall.

Instruction booklets and copies of the four specimen ballots have been mailed to the judges. The county clerk's office will be open at 6 a.m. on election day and kept open throughout the night and on Wednesday until all ballots, tallies and election supplies have been turned in to the office.

A new law requires judges of each precinct to select one of their number to telephone results directly to the county clerk's office as soon as the results are announced at the polls.

No tabulation at that time is required of the county clerk, since she, together with the canvass board, conducts the official canvass later the same week. However, duplicate lists will be released to county news-

Airport Proponents Will Meet To Discuss Financing

A future meeting of representatives of the various official and semi-official organizations interested in the development of a Greater St. Louis area will be held to discuss the major problems of financing such a venture. Milton Kinsey, chairman of the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce airport development committee, announced at the conclusion of a the group should "establish an agency with powers to implement the program."

Interested groups which had representatives at the meeting included St. Louis Airport Commission, St. Louis County, the Bi-State Development Agency, the Tri-City Regional Port Authority and the Bi-County (Madison and St. Clair) Airport Commission.

Several suggestions as to which agency should undertake the development of a second major airport were made at the meeting, which took place in the headquarters of the St. Louis Metropolitan Chamber of Commerce. However, no plans were put forth as to how such agencies would finance such a venture, which would require great initial investment and probably future subsidizing.

The feelings of those attending were summed up by Walter T. Malloy of the St. Louis Airport Commission, who said, "The time to reserve space for another major airport is now."

Outcome of the meeting called by Kinsey could be the establishment of a finance committee made up of members of the various interested organizations. No date for the meeting was set.

Rotarians' Gift of Music To GCHS Dedicated Tuesday

Town and gown joined Tuesday afternoon in the ceremonial presentation-dedication of an electric organ at Granite City high school in a sort of hands-across-the-generations ritual of giving and of receiving.

Town, represented by 45 Granite City Rotarians and 15 Rotary Anna and academic gown—some 500 faculty members and high school youths shared in the festive formalities. At the core was Rotary's $2000 gift of music to the student body of today and of tomorrow—the electronic organ.

The rituals of presentation and acceptance were handled on stage before a jam-packed special auditorium assembly; then there was the recital by the organist, with Albert H. Froemling at the console.

Variety Of Tunes
For his service club colleagues, Rotarian Froemling had vintage airs, rich in melody and awash with sentimentality; there were show tunes, the organist "swung" a variation of a neo-classical, and his repertoire included selections from sacred music. And he responded to the demand for an encore.

Then sounded the thunders of applause of 900 hand-slapping patrons, thank you of significant resonance, reverberating through halls, corridors and the auditorium. In it, youth spoke its appreciation for the gift of the organization whose credo is "Service."

But before all this, Rotarians and Rotary Anna were luncheon guests of the faculty and student body in the richly alive and ardent cafeteria which, at the noon hour, was in a hurry-burry of coming and going.

Then, under the guidance of Principal Lawrence C. McCauley, there was an abbreviated tour of the new north wing; next sounded the call for auditorium assembly.

First off, Rotarians were directed to place-of-honor seats; then, their musical gift to their left, Rotary Anna were ushered down front row center.

Then, in trooped the special assembly 900—a figure Principal McCauley pointed out, representing but 50% of the enrollment. But that's all the auditorium could accommodate.

Student, Principal Preside
William "Bill" Ridings, the stocky president of the Student Council, called for and got attention from his well-mannered classmates. There was the pledge of allegiance to the Stars and Stripes, and then Principal McCauley took over.

He introduced the Rotary Anna to the assembly, thereupon handed the dedicatory program over to School Supt. Harold M. Kaiser.

Dr. Kaiser, a fellow Rotarian, in expressing the school's appreciation for the instrument declared: "We are truly fortunate to have in our community an organization interested in enriching the cultural, artistic, musical and aesthetic life of Granite City and its upcoming generation."

Parentetically the superintendent noted, an organ had long been a high school need. But it was felt to be an expensive item that should not be borne by taxpayers.

The musical lacuna was met last June when the Rotary gift organ was installed in time for the June baccalaureate service. In no wise remaining mute since that time, its formal dedication was held in abeyance until Tuesday—and now it belongs wholly to the students and faculty.

Presentation was made by Girl Scout Troop 82, a junior high school unit, held a campout during the weekend at Camp Lakota near Glen Carbon, living in pup tents and cooking over open fires. Mrs. Polly Bealer, leader, was in charge of the group.

Arthur Nichols, 2927 Circle drive, was a weekend guest of Mrs. Vera Nichols at the Lake of the Ozarks in Missouri.

Four one-year collegiate scholarships to sons and daughters of members will be awarded by the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union (OCAW) Local 7663, with headquarters at 630 Lincoln avenue, Venice. They are valued at $2000.

Ivor R. Cowley, secretary-treasurer of the local, said today applications are now being received under the '61 scholarship program sponsored by OCAW. "The four one-year scholarships, worth $2000, are available to sons and daughters of OCAW

"Each student competes only within his geographic region and must take a competitive examination administered by the College Entrance Examination Board. Winners will be judged on the basis of their secondary school records, personal qualifications and the results of their scholastic aptitude tests.

City's Traffic Accident Rate Nearing 3-A-Day Mark

Granite City's traffic accident rate, increased by the 90 accidents in October, is rapidly reaching the three-a-day mark.

The rate for October was 2.9 a day, while for the year, the daily average is 2.83.

October's 90 accidents jumped the total for the year to 866, or 104 more than the 762 crashes reported during the first 10 months of 1959. The month's total was only two under the 92 prediction made by police early in October.

Injuries also are showing an increase this year. With the 25 reported in October, the total for the year stands at 266, or 42 more than during the same period last year. An injury occurs for every 3.2 accidents in the city.

However, city officials are more than pleased that no fatalities were recorded in the first 10 months, while in the same period last year, two occurred in the first six months.

Madison Ave. Dangerous: Police are concerned over the number of crashes on Madison avenue—a majority of them

October Accident Totals For GC

Year	Accidents	Injuries	Deaths
1959	90	25	0
1958	88	27	0
1957	78	21	0
1956	89	38	0
1955	68	18	1
1954	85	28	0

1951	55	11	0
1950	74	10	0

"rear-end" collisions at traffic signals.

During October, 21 of the 90 accidents were reported on Madison avenue, increasing the total for the year to 174 mishaps on the busy, four-lane thoroughfare.

Five crashes occurred last month at the 20th street and Madison avenue intersection, with two credited to 20th street and three to Madison avenue. It also was noted that with the opening of 19th street to two-way traffic, "left-turn" accidents are occurring at Madison avenue.

The accident rate on other busy thoroughfares showed seven on Nameoki road, seven on 20th street, three on Niedringhaus avenue, three on State street and two on 19th street.

3 Days Without Crashes: There were only three days last month on which accidents were not reported. However, these were more than offset by one day—Saturday, Oct. 15—on which 11 accidents occurred.

The "accidentless" days were Monday, Oct. 10, Wednesday, Oct. 12, and Thursday, Oct. 20.

Other days with "more than their share of mishaps" were Monday, Oct. 3, six; Wednesday, Oct. 5, five; Saturday, Oct. 8, six; Saturday, Oct. 15, eleven; Wednesday, Oct. 19, four; Monday, Oct. 24, four; Thursday, Oct. 27, five; Saturday, Oct. 29, six; and Monday, Oct. 31, six.

Police records also show there were five days on which three accidents occurred, eight days on which two were reported and six days on which one accident occurred.

The types of accidents included 49 two-car crashes along with four three-car pileups and a four-car crash. There also were six auto-truck mishaps.

13 Hit-Run Accidents: An unusually large number of hit-run crashes also were reported during the month—12 involving a parked vehicle and one in which both vehicles were moving. In addition, there were five crashes involving parked and moving vehicles.

Two bicyclists were injured in collisions with motor vehicles and an auto-pedestrian mishap also was reported. Two autos not involved in collisions overturned, and fixed objects struck by motor vehicles included two trees, two poles, a fire hydrant and two fences.

A breakdown of the number of accidents and injuries in that order by months follows: January—92 and 28, February—96 and 20, March—87 and 21, April—83 and 23, May—91 and 31, June 82 and 22, July—90 and 31, August—76 and 30, September—79 and 38, and October—90 and 25.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoff, 1645 Moro avenue, motored to Chicago and attended a convention during the weekend of the Hiram Walker Co., for which Hoff is a salesman.

Plans are being made by the Altar Society of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church for a "country store" project on Nov. 19. Mrs. Emma Jaschik, chairman of the event, has announced that Christmas articles and home-made jams, jellies, pies and cakes will be offered and there will be cartoons for the children. Mrs. John Scherer will have a ceramic booth.

Arrangements for the parish Halloween party were made by the Altar Society, with Mrs. Alice Ann Neumann as chairman and Mrs. Julia Lancaster and Mrs. Peggy Komadina in charge of decorations. Henry Gabriel was master-of-ceremonies, and costume prizes were awarded.

Parents will hold a parent-teacher session on Friday, Nov. 6, through Sunday, Nov. 8. This is the time when parents meet with their children's teacher at a designated time for a private conference.

The group has decided to hold its Christmas party out-of-town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johanssee and children, Mary, Joyce, Karen and Darlene, attended a birthday party Sunday in Roxana, celebrating the ninth birthday of Laura Lynn Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price.

Hallowe'en Vandals Cut Car Top, Pelt House With Eggs

Five vandalism and Hallowe'en prankster calls were answered Monday evening and night by Granite City police.

Eileen Voss, 2814 Dogwood avenue, reported that vandals slashed the cloth top on his 1955 convertible coupe while it was parked at his home.

Alex Blason, 1836 Bremen avenue, told police he chased motorized vandals who threw eggs on the front of his house, scattered toilet paper in the shrubbery and smashed a decorative vase on the sidewalk at his front porch steps.

Blason reported the vandals arrived at shortly before 10 p. m. saying four or five youths were in the yard and fled in a blue and white auto when he began to chase them.

Hallowe'en prankster calls were received at 7:42 p. m. from the 2200 block of Waterman avenue and 7:55 p. m. from the 2700 block of Harding avenue, but no one was on the scenes when police arrived and no descriptions of the pranks were listed on the reports.

At 7:45 p. m. police were summoned to investigate a "supercar" parked along the Granite City Steel Co. scrap yard fence on East 23rd street, but the car was gone when they arrived.

$13,100 Permits Given In Madison

Madison building permits amounted to $13,100 during October, a monthly listing by city Comptroller E. J. Miller showed this week. Six projects were authorized.

Largest construction planned is a 14x28-foot three-room frame addition to be built for Ruth Stoyant, 1211 Iowa street, at a cost of $500. A residence at 1926 Edwardsville road will be remodeled at a cost of $550, with a new gas furnace and electric service installed and a second entrance created.

Earl McKee plans to enclose the front porch at 1625 Second street at a cost of $700, while Christine Marino, 901 Greenwood street, plans a $500 remodeling project, including removal of the front porch.

Clifford Dunlaphan, 1418 Sixth street, obtained a $300 permit on replacing the roof and repainting the back porch. Earl Stenikier will build a 14x24 carport costing $100 at 1111 Grand avenue.

Hallowe'en Quiet In Both Madison, Venice

Hallowe'en night passed with fewer incidents than expected in Madison and Venice, prompting praise by police Tuesday. Madison Chief Barney Fraundorf said, "It was the best Hallowe'en we've ever had," and Venice Chief Robert Trower expressed his appreciation to the children for their cooperation.

No instances of property destruction were reported in Madison, although eggs were thrown at several autos, including a police patrol car. Two fire hydrants were turned on, water-filled balloons were thrown and a large rock was pushed into the middle of a street, reports during Monday evening indicated. Most activity was confined to fewer nights this year than in the past, police added.

In Venice, a parade and outdoor program were held and ten officers in five cars patrolled the city. Most severe developments were breaking of a window in the Island Food Center grocery and the partial burning of an unused frame shed structure at the Merchants Bridge approach and County road at 7:20 p. m. Monday. The blaze was put out by Venice firemen, who gave no estimate on the damage.

Eggs were thrown at a Community Coach Co. bus in Venice, and logs and cans were moved into streets on several occasions. Police described the Hallowe'en observance generally as "good natured."

Sale of Liberty School Building, Campus Tomorrow

Sale of the former Liberty grade school and its grounds will take place at 10 a.m. Friday at the site, 19th street and Park avenue. Involved in the public transaction will be the frame building and seven tracts—Lots 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 of Block 62 of Granite City's Industrial Addition.

The sale will be handled by the township school trustees of the community unit school district. George Hughes, Roger Paulett and Arthur Frazier. Terms will be a 10% down payment tomorrow and the balance within 30 days.

The school structure was used on a temporary basis from world war I until the summer of 1959, when construction of new elementary schools made it possible to abandon Liberty as an attendance center.

The building was then used for storage of school supplies, but this practice was ended this year. The sale was called by the trustees at the request of the school board.

Gov. Stratton And State's Attorney Mudge Have Served This Area Well

As the Nov. 8 election approaches, voters everywhere are rationalizing their reasons for or against candidates, weighing the good with the bad. The result in many cases may hinge on one small area of a candidate's record or his campaign promises.

The Press-Record is a hometown newspaper; its primary, if not exclusive, concern is the welfare of the Quad-Cities and the people here, and in this context we feel constrained to make some observations that do affect all of us even though, perhaps, they are not wholly local.

Never in our memory has a governor of Illinois, whether Republican or Democrat, been as responsive to the needs of the Quad-Cities, nor done so much for this community and the entire bi-county area, as has Gov. William G. Stratton, who has visited here often. Let's pinpoint a few things:

Plans are just being completed for an $18 million four-lane, divided riverfront highway, skirting the Quad-Cities from Mitchell to East St. Louis. The time table calls for right-of-way acquisition, as well as detailed specifications, in 1961.

A $100,000 initial appropriation for preliminary engineering to convert Horseshoe Lake into a $3½ million, 7,700-acre state park. Another $300,000 is to be released and subsequent appropriations will complete the project over a period of years.

A multi-million dollar highway program is still going on in Madison and St. Clair counties, a boon to motorists in saving time and reducing accidents. A stepped-up safety enforcement program also has done a lot to lower fatalities, with an estimated 1,000 lives saved since 1953 in Illinois.

Adequate financial support was provided for the new Tri-City Regional Port District, which already is way ahead of schedule in laying the foundation to attract new industry here and to extensively develop the Granite City Harbor area.

Inclusion of $25 million to build a new university on the Bluffs near here, and strong support, personally and politically, for this project in the Nov. 8 election. His support is going equally to $8½ million for expansion of the Alton State Hospital that is part of another bond issue election on that date.

There are other accomplishments of the Stratton administration which more or less directly affect this area, but these are the most important that come to mind.

Judge Otto Kerner, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate, who has an excellent reputation, might have done as well for this rapidly growing area; or he might not. If elected, he might continue Gov. Stratton's keen interest in the Quad-Cities; or he might not.

On the strength of what Gov. Stratton has done and still is doing—for this community, as well as this Illinois Metropolitan Area, there ought to be greater assurance of the future with him in office.

Candidates for the office of State's Attorney of Madison county are Dick H. Mudge, Democratic incumbent, and Edward D. Gresham, Republican, formerly of Venice.

With all due respect to Gresham, whose record includes activities in support of law and order, it was Mudge who waged the bitter fight to clean up Madison county—and then did it. This was not easy after so many years of gangster-gambling and corruption.

Under Mudge's regime, Madison county has lost its reputation for lawlessness; it is making the place a wholesome climate that is conducive to development. It has been a long time since we've heard Madison county referred to in derogatory terms. And even those who "accepted" conditions as they were, like things better the way they are now.

Madison county has come a long way up the ladder, thanks to Dick Mudge. It would seem no more than simple justice to return him to office.

For the consideration of local voters, we would also recommend Melvin Price, Democratic candidate for Congress; Lloyd "Curly" Harris, Ralph Smith and Paul Simon, candidates for State Representative; and John Kravetz, Democratic candidate for County Auditor, on the basis of their past performance.

EDITORIAL

Widespread First-Aid Training Aided Girls In Saving Infant

Successful efforts by two Granite City junior high school girls to revive a choking 10-month-old infant are a tribute to both their quick thinking and their knowledge of first-aid and artificial respiration techniques.

Probably more young people are trained in first-aid than most people realize. Because of regular and special classes at the YMCA, training in Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops and classes sponsored by churches and clubs, a great many youngsters are prepared from an early age to cope with such emergencies.

This is important, for in most cases there is not enough time to summon professional aid. The thanks of the family and community go to the widespread emphasis on first-aid in the Quad-Cities, and to two students wise enough to put their skill to useful employ.

The Shah of Iran is the kind of "new daddy" we like. Instead of passing out cigars, he reduced taxes of his countrymen 20 percent. In this country, and on that kind of platform, he could beat both Nixon and Kennedy.

One Solution If Hallowe'en Pranks Become Destructive

There was justice of a sort in the capture of several Hallowe'en vandals, who were put to work cleaning off the wax they had applied to windows. It was a window "decoration" of a type unusually hard to remove. The season is one for costumes, fun, treats and pranks, but in the latter activity some ground rules should be followed.

It is fortunate that instances of broken windows and spilled paint were few in number, for this type of vandalism can only lead to sterner counter measures if continued. Perhaps the best punishment for those who go a little too far in celebrating Hallowe'en is for them to be required to repair their own handiwork, as a group of saddened youngsters did this week.

Everyone is becoming serious-minded over the many election decisions to be made. But, looking ahead, the election month of November will soon be followed by December's gaiety. In fact, there are only 43 shopping days till Christmas.

PHA Scanning Budget For Elderly Housing

Preliminary work toward a 100-unit public housing development for the elderly is nearing completion. It was reported during a meeting of Granite City Housing Authority commissioners Tuesday evening at the Kirkpatrick Homes office.

A site plan and development budget have been presented to the office of the regional director of the Public Housing Administration at Chicago, and negotiations are underway on the budget.

When a budget agreement is reached, architects will proceed on detailed drawings of the project buildings. Selection of a site for the units, while rated in a priority order, has not yet been definitely determined. Several sites are under consideration.

Robert Gibson, chairman, presided at Tuesday evening's meeting, and a guest was Maynard Long of the State Housing Board, who was making a routine visit to the local project.

The present Kirkpatrick Homes federal low-income housing project has a shortage of smaller apartments needed for the elderly and has a long waiting list of applicants.

Junior High Group Aids UN Children's Fund

The Junior High Westminster Fellowship of the First United Presbyterian Church of Granite City raised $80 this week in house-to-house solicitation for Unicef, the United Nations fund to provide medicine, food and clothing for underprivileged children.

About 25 youngsters participated, and those in charge were Mr. and Mrs. David Lakin, Mrs. Charles Borden and Mrs. David Maston.

New Directors For Crippled Association

New directors have been elected for the Madison County Association for the Crippled, Inc., and will serve with others including four Granite Cityans: Mrs. Ernest Vohl Jr., Mrs. Udel Blischoff, Mrs. Howard Kaseberg and Mrs. W. W. Bowers. The new directors are from the Alton and Edwardsville areas.

Mrs. Vohl reported this week that Mrs. John Hosh of Alton, who became acting director of the Easter Seal Society in September 1959, will continue this year as executive director of the society.

The annual report of the association showed that 136 persons were served in one or more of the treatment programs of a total of 2348 treatments. Over 4000 volunteer hours were spent in services at the centers in Alton and Edwardsville and at day camp.

The society's programs include occupational therapy, speech therapy, pre-school workshops for speech handicapped and physically handicapped, parent counseling, public education, equipment loan pool and a two-week summer day camp.

Expenses incurred amounted to $15,574, and the income amounted to $12,278, of which $8082 was through the annual Easter Seal campaign.

Other income was $2159 from fees, $936 from donations, $63 from memorials, $564 from Christmas card sales, $35 from the federal milk program, $435 from memberships, $354 from special events, $284 from centers and $63, interest on savings.

$5 License Fine

James T. Hammingway, 74, of 213 West Second street, Madison, who was arrested Tuesday morning at 21st street and Edison avenue by Granite City police on a charge of operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license, was fined $5 and costs during a hearing before Police Magistrate Gasparovic.

Construction For Year In GC Totals $6,252,398

New construction in Granite City during October totaled $502,487 in value, increasing the total for the year to $6,252,398, or slightly under the $6,875,588 for the similar 10-month period in 1959.

However, the 763 permits issued so far this year, is under the 875 issued in the same period of 1959, and home building has declined from the 289 in the first 10 months of 1959 to 182 this year.

It may be noted that the difference in permits for the two years—112—is almost entirely in the home building field, with this year's construction of dwellings 107 behind that of last year.

The $502,487 value last month compares to $443,799 in October 1959, when there were 107 permits including 33 for the month. This past month, the permits numbered 67, with 15 for dwellings.

Permits issued on the final day of the month went to Nellie B. Bennett, $1400 to enclose back porch at 2644 Edwards street; Hannah Lofis, $600 for a carport at 2307 Lincoln avenue; and Chester J. James, $250 for siding at 2403 Missouri avenue.

Shenwell Returns From Cruise In Pacific

Charles J. Shenwell, yeoman third class, USN, son of Mr. Beuna E. Shenwell of 2435 Ohio avenue, returned to San Diego, Calif., last month aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Ticonderoga from a cruise with Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

The ship visited Hawaii, Japan, an, Okinawa, the Philippine Islands and Hong Kong, and was a unit of the task group that escorted President Eisenhower from Manila to Formosa during his visit to the Far East in June.

Voter Tip: Carry ID Card To Polls; Voting Data

Quid-City voters, when they go to the polls next Tuesday (Nov. 8), should make sure they have with them their voter's certificate of identification (pink card), County Clerk Eugene J. Hotz cautioned today in issuing instructions designed to facilitate voting.

Miss Hotz said the voter should likewise be sure the pink certificate bears the expiration date of July 1964, as all other identifications are invalid.

In the event the card has been lost, she said "write immediately to the county clerk's office at Edwardsville for a duplicate."

"In the event there is any question as to a voter's right to cast a ballot in a precinct, the voter's certificate of identification is helpful. If through some oversight, a voter's name is not on the printed list of his precinct, or the voter's permanent card is not in the proper precinct binder, but the voter presents his pink card with a proper address for that precinct and is actually domiciled therein, the law provides that the voter may complete a short affidavit form provided in the election supplies, to which his card is attached and returned to the county clerk so that the records may be rectified."

Home Address Necessary

The county clerk pointed out that when the voter signs an application for ballots, he must give the address of his residence where he is actually domiciled, never a business address. The judge of election, she declared, is required to compare the signature and address on the application with the permanent record in the binder, and if they correspond, the judge gives the voter one of each of the four ballots to be voted upon.

The voter must return all four ballots to the judge of election whether or not he votes on all four of them. The statutes require the voter to hand the ballots to the judge, who deposits them in the ballot box in the presence of the voter.

"It has often been disputed," Miss Hotz related, "whether the voter puts the ballots in the ballot box, or whether the ballots must be handed the judge, and the latter procedure is absolute law."

An elector has a right to vote if he is qualified as required by statute—meaning if he is properly registered, which requires 30 days residency in the precinct he presently lives in, has resided in the county 90 days and in the state of Illinois one year immediately prior to Nov. 8.

"Many argue," she explained, "they have a right to vote some place, however, the courts have held that an elector can vote only if he meets the statutory qualifications."

Miss Hotz disclosed her office has been "deluged" with calls from persons who have moved from one precinct to another since Oct. 10, or who have moved previously but forgotten or neglected to report the change of address to the county clerk.

Such action is required by election law.

Miss Hotz did state however, that the splendid publicity given by the press, together with effective efforts of various civic organizations, helped electors to realize their obligation to check their voter's cards prior to Oct. 10, and bring them up to date.

Few Exceptions

There are only a few instances when electors are permitted by law to vote by affidavit, one being when an elector moves from one address to another within the same precinct within two years prior to Election Day (from Nov. 8, 1958).

Another instance is when a woman who was a registered voter changes her name by marriage or other court order since Nov. 8, 1958, but continues to live in the same precinct.

Persons in the United States service need not be registered as long as they meet the residence qualifications prior to their entry in the United States Service. Any person discharged from the army, navy or any other branch of the United States service, in the 60 days prior to an election, may vote without being registered after completing an affidavit to that effect at the polls.

Madison's New Fire, Plumbing Codes Up Dec. 13

Ordinances revising and supplementing present municipal fire and plumbing codes so they meet legal requirements and underwriters' standards will be up for consideration by the Madison city council on Dec. 13.

The data was set as mayor and aldermen met Tuesday night.

Newly material, including penalties, to be written into the city code will be drawn from the 188-page National Board of Fire Underwriters' fire prevention code and the voluminous Illinois state model plumbing code.

Copies of these publications are on file for public inspection at the office of City Clerk Percy Lux.

Abbreviated Form

Corporation Counsel Austin Lewis said legal publication of the lengthy new codes would be prohibitively costly. Consequently, he advised the council only an abbreviated form will be prepared from references to the codes, amendments and new

Since the fire underwriters' and Illinois state model codes will form the basis for the new plumbing and fire prevention ordinances to be introduced Dec. 13, Lewis urged all interested persons to acquaint themselves with the recommended changes set out in these booklets.

He was joined in this by Mayor Stephen A. Macraes.

Lewis said he will go to work immediately to draft the ordinances, incorporating much of the model form and underwriters' code material.

Status Of Madison Avenue

Mayor Macraes reported that specifications, cost estimates, and preliminary plans for the widening and resurfacing of Madison avenue should be ready during the week for submission for preliminary approval to district engineers at the state highway department.

Next, he explained, plans must be pushed on to Springfield for final approval and release of funds by state authorities.

"Not until then," he declared, "can work commence on the highway through the city's business district."

New Date On Drainage Work

Meanwhile, he revealed, Nov. 14 has been set as target date for beginning of work on the multi-million dollar municipal storm drainage project. Macraes said initial work on this long-contemplated improvement would be undertaken in the vicinity of the city pumping station.

The job is not expected to move at full pace ahead until next spring, Venice will share in the benefits.

Approved by the council were salary payments, bills, service charges, material, supplies for the municipality and municipal-owned Chain of Rocks bridge amounting to $100,000.

Filed likewise, after approval, was the auditor's report on fiscal condition of the city as of last April 30.

Third Ward Alderman Raymond Kozielec commented that the city of Madison's accounts are, in reality, double-checked, not only by the auditor, but by the mayor himself, qualified and competent as a fiscal expert and accountant to serve as an additional "watchdog of the treasury."

Stop Sign Change

A change of failing to observe a stop sign at East 23rd street and Narmel road was placed against Charles L. Miller, 24, of 2838 Harding avenue, who was arrested Monday night by Granite City police. He posted his driver's license as bond.

'Y' Board Hears Highlights Of Summer Tour To Europe

Highlights of the trip and benefits of on-the-spot participation in the peoples-to-peoples program accomplished in the 1960 World Youth Conference were pictorialized and told the YMCA board of directors Monday night.

Attracting young people and youth leaders from the United States, western Europe and other parts of the globe, the worldwide gathering was held last summer at Amsterdam, Holland.

Attending were Miss Patricia (Pat) Mega, director of teen-age activities at the YMCA, and Ron Randall, 2721 Michigan avenue. He was a delegate, representing the local YMCA and the youth of the Quad-Cities.

Miss Mega was one of 27 adult leaders accompanying the 200 American youth delegates to the Holland metropolis, and on the companion six-weeks' tour of the group.

This trip took them to England, to continental countries, to Rome for the Olympic games and they saw a performance of the Passion Play at Oberammergau.

Don't wait for opportunity to knock—the key that opens the door to success.

You have a date—November 8—to VOTE for OTTO KERNER for GOVERNOR

"The Sun-Times endorses Otto Kerner, the Democratic nominee for governor. He is a man of substance, dignity and accomplishment who could bring to Springfield a good leadership in State house politics that has been lacking for the past 8 years."

Chicago Sun-Times, October 20, 1960
"Judge Kerner has a brilliant record as a lawyer, jurist, soldier, humanitarian and civic leader. He has not been tainted by the slightest breath of scandal. He should make an excellent governor."

The Rockford Register-Republic, an outstanding Republican newspaper, . . . August 22, 1960.
"The governor has based his entire campaign on his record, which certainly is spotty, to put it charitably, and on his strides against Chicago's City Hall. He is attempting to accuse downstate against Chicago". . . We believe governor Scrantom has earned defeat, and that Judge Otto Kerner is deserving of the support of any independent voter or independent Republican who is not afraid to cross party lines."

Glenn City Courier . . . a Republican Newspaper, October 6, 1960.
"We believe Kerner to be a man of firm personal integrity, highly intelligent, and well informed. He has a realistic understanding of great problems now confronting the state. He should be persuasive with the legislature and the people in finding solutions as satisfactory as possible under the circumstances."

Chicago Daily News, October 18, 1960.

VOTER'S CHECK LIST
This or That
☒ A governor who will use the powers of the governor's office for the benefit of ALL the people of the state, without regard for race, color, creed, geography or political persuasion. . . a man of conscience, integrity and independence throughout.
☒ A governor who will give us a morally responsible state administration with men and women of integrity in positions of trust.
☒ A governor who stands for a mental health program that will provide not only adequate hospital buildings and facilities, but also the necessary medical and psychiatric personnel to help cure those who can be cured.
☒ A governor who will provide a state administration that is financially sound and that will operate on a "performance budget," so that you will know where and how your tax money is being spent.
☒ A governor who believes that taxes should be fair and equitable throughout the state—without the imposition of a state income tax . . . a governor who will sponsor and support a new Revenue Article for the state so that you will pay only your fair share of taxes and no more.
☐ A governor who has been repudiated by traditionally Republican newspapers because they are convinced he has been more interested in the building of a personal political machine than in serving the needs of our citizens.
☐ A governor whose administration has been marred again and again by headline scandals. "Theft of state funds by state auditors." "Last purchase manipulations by toll way officials." "Tax scandal involves chief administrative assistants."
☐ A governor whose mental health program sees Illinois mental hospitals understaffed, overcrowded, under financed and overlooked . . . a diagnostic program that finds nothing steadily behind our latest states in mental health achievements.
☐ A governor whose administration keeps the truth about the state's financial condition from the people. At the current rate of spending no appropriation, Illinois will be 31 million dollars short of requirements by June of 1961.
☐ A governor whose administration by manipulation of the so-called "multiplier" has caused undue tax burdens and inequalities in many areas of the state.

UPHOLDS CONSTITUTION ON CHURCH AND STATE

Dear Sir:

Who is the pawn, and who is the king, in this ridiculous, amoralizing game of chess exploiting our Christian faith? I devoutly believe in the principles of the old Levee Board. Had I lived in 1950, I would have handed Martin Luther the hammer to nail the ninety-five theses on the All Saints Church door. However, my vote would have been an enthusiastic yes for the 1st amendment to our Constitution of the United States, namely—separation of Church and State, and freedom of speech. Why? Because I object to tyranny in any form, and in any situation.

I am strongly opposed to labor leaders spending money contributed by union members for full page political ads. I am firmly against Church leaders using money contributed by members for political purposes, cleverly and subtly luring the blind moral and spiritual statements. They are guilty of this in a large majority of churches, and in all faiths.

Americans are being placed in the precarious position of being disloyal Catholics if they vote for Richard Nixon. Anyone of Protestant faith is a bigot to vote against John Kennedy. It would indeed be shameful, to defeat Mr. Nixon through a religious issue, as it was in the case of Al Smith in 1928. I'm sure Mr. Kennedy feels he has better qualifications for the job of President, than merely to win on the strength of religious martyrdom.

I believe in freedom of speech for each and every citizen, but not through paid ads, falsely representing the political views of millions of American people. The main issue is peace, nationally and internationally. Mr. Nixon courageously states, "Not peace at ANY price, but peace at OUR price." I believe in his principles and policies.

I will not vote AGAINST John Kennedy. I shall vote FOR Richard Nixon. Sincerely yours, LILY P. CHABOUDE, 2865 Ralph St., Granite City, Illinois.

TAKES EXCEPTION TO EDITORIAL GRAND

Editor, Press-Record
Granite City, Illinois
Dear Sir:

I read with a great deal of interest your editorial in Monday's Press-Record with regard to the Levee Board election. I am surprised to find that you have suddenly taken an interest in Levee Board politics, because you apparently did not care to express an opinion in the April Primary Election.

At that time, who were in a bitter fight to oust the old Fields machine-controlled board blooded with you to help us in our fight—a fight which we eventually lost in a rigged election. But you told me then that

Readers are invited to contribute to this column. Name and address must accompany each communication but identity of author will not be revealed if anonymity is requested. Letters should be 250 words or less.

The Press-Record's policy did not permit the endorsing of political candidates.

You now urge—in Monday's paper—that the voters cast their ballots for two Madison County candidates for the Levee Board in the upcoming election. You realize, of course, that they are Republicans and hardly stand a chance of election.

You missed your real opportunity in the Primary if you REALLY wanted to do something to improve the situation about by the tactics of the old Levee Board. At that time, you had a chance to help nominate a slate of Democratic candidates—who probably would have been elected in November—who would have cleaned up the Levee Board mess.

Why single out Emma Ell as being a member of the Levee Board's padded payroll—even if he does make $3,600 a year in his "retired" job instead of $100 if he'd been nominated? He is only one example. Last spring of 1950, he had provided you with numerous similar cases to show that this kind of thing has been going on all the time.

I think it is about time you stand up and be counted—once again—as a member of the Levee Board. I know whether you are for or against the political manipulation of the old Levee Board through mis-use of the taxpayers' money. How about it?

Sincerely yours,
MONROE L. FLINN.

POLITICS AND RELIGION

I didn't intend to write on these subjects but a person has to express his opinion once in a while.

It seems as though Mr. Kennedy as a political candidate for presidency of the United States has been getting objections from some persons because of his religion.

The Catholic Church will not be helped or hurt by the outcome of the presidential election. The U. S. may be harmed by the bigot who would rewrite in practice the clauses of the constitution which betwix a religious test for office and guarantee equal rights for all religions before the law. They are the real enemies of the constitution.

When it comes to collaboration with religious groups for the civic betterment of America, each religious group in the nation has the right, and often the duty to speak out on public matters that are intimately affected by laws of morality. Political corruption, obscene movies, rights of trade unions to organize, shady middle class practices are some examples where religious groups may feel compelled to take a stand, but condemning a man because he happens to be of Catholic denomination is something else.

There is one commandment which says "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself." All of us, regardless of religion, should apply our-

These parasites on the taxpayer's is the reason the President vetoed salary legislation for the Federal Postal Employees. He was trying to balance the budget at the expense of the Federal employee instead of making these rascals pay their way.

The working class people should never forget favors granted to major oil and other special groups. They should bear in mind as they go to the polls the Sherman Adams-Bernard Goldfine incident—the way the President upheld Sherman Adams in what he did.

They should remember the way the President squandered $75,000 of the taxpayers' money on the so-called non-political tour and Mr. Haggerty's so-called attitude.

Think of the many small taxpayers who have to make their children polish their only pair of shoes in order to attend church or of those children who never get a balanced diet in order to make up the deficit created by the favors granted to these government subsidized money interests.

The election campaign will soon be over and we hope its bitter religious aspects will also soon be ended, but no matter who is elected, Americans will still face the problem of mending rifts in civic unity caused by the unexpected flareup of religious intolerance. I don't think this religious issue should be set aside after the election. It should be discussed with other, I have many friends of different religions whom I have always respected and always will.

By now you know that I am a Catholic. Nevertheless, I will believe in God. The Catholics believe in prayers of which are the Apostles' Creed, the central act of sacrificial worship, the seven sacraments, the divine indwelling and the life of prayer, the beautiful union of all Christians in Christ, these are the sublime works of the church.

The main idea is that we are all Americans. We are generous to which the rest of the world misunderstands. When we give we donate money to someone that needs it. We aren't trying to buy our friends, we are doing it from our heart. It is our nature each one of us by one by one. That is why God has given us so much in return. Let's not be discouraged by ingratitude for then the spirit of Christian charity would dim everywhere. What we set a great example to others.

In closing my letter I will say this: Please don't vote how someone else has told you to vote. Weigh it in your own mind. Don't condemn no one because of his religion. Get out and vote for what you personally believe, not what someone else has heard or said. Talk is very cheap, but a vote for the right man is high. Vote for the man that you feel can do the job.

I have made up my own mind, and I know John Kennedy is the right man. It is no obligation because I am a Catholic. My obligation is to God and my family and the future. Thank you.

'DISGRUNTLED AMERICAN' CRITICIZES REPUBLICANS

Dear Sir:

I am a disgruntled American. I am writing this letter hoping that someone will print it. I am completely baffled by the political campaign. I have been following it closely and find some disturbing factors.

The people have had a government that has been beneficial only to big business and they should by now be getting tired of living on the crumbs that are scattered by the ungrateful Republican benefactors of their sweat and blood.

The big reason the people don't vote these money-changers of office is because the majority of the news media is controlled by Republican interests. Consequently, they even govern the amount and type of information the American people receive for the favor of distorting the news given the public.

The Republicans have passed legislation subsidizing major newspaper and magazine publications to the tune of $235,000,000 a year. I shall name two publications as examples.

Reader's Digest is handled by the Post Office Department at a loss of $6,000,000 per year. Life magazine with all its anti-labor, anti-union, anti-Democrat editorials is handled by the Post Office Department at a loss of $9,500,000 per year.

In the recent salary campaign by the letter-carriers, Mr. Nixon, who is now asking the people to vote for him, wasn't even gracious enough to answer correspondence from the wives and mothers of letter carriers who make up the letter carriers auxiliary. He wouldn't break it to the vote that would have aided the teachers of this great country.

Now they expect us to elect a president who has already proven to be a puppet. The puppet master who pulls the strings is the general attention he has received has been at the expense of the taxpayer. Nixon's running mate has already admitted to name the cabinet. A present puppet like this who will let any big financial interest pull his strings is bound to get them tangled up and have this country in a bigger mess than it already is.

Come on FELLOW AMERICANS, let's not let a man's religion stop us from putting a real person in the White House. I'm sure when the chips are down and Jack Kennedy's shipmate depended on Jack to save his life, Jack asked no question concerning the man's religion. Remember that the safeguard against any church state legislation is the control the Houses of Congress have.

The Republican party thinks that the poor people are ignorant, otherwise they would be rich. They are counting on the ignorance to gain the poor people's vote because they need it to elect their tool in the form of Richard Nixon. Don't be fooled; show them that you are not ignorant. The paper-vendor on the corner of the street can wield as much power with HIS Catholic belief I just voiced my opinion regarding the matter which is my Constitutional rights. Oh yes to the other letter by a Citizen, President Eisenhower isn't a Quaker. You were just all shook up with anger when you answered my letter and made a mistake. You stated long live the Pope. I say long live Billy Graham, Oral Roberts, and etc. Funny thing though, regardless of who you are 70 years is just about your life-spans isn't it? I also would like to take this opportunity to compliment Mr. Moss on the splendid letter he wrote the forum regarding Kennedy's liberalism. In one of Kennedy's speeches he remarked of eating beans and corn cobs. I can just see a millionaire eating beans. Can't you? I hope this letter gets in the forum before the election because if Kennedy is elected I had better head for Cuba in a row boat.

ON RELIGION ISSUE
Mrs. Loftus, my story did not fall apart as you stated in your letter of Monday issue October 31. I don't recall of being under any dictatorship of the Pope in Rome in the year of 1954. Our commander was Roosevelt, not a millionaire eating beans. Can't you? I hope this letter gets in the forum before the election because if Kennedy is elected I had better head for Cuba in a row boat.

AN AMERICAN CITIZEN'S ANSWER TO ANOTHER CITIZEN

Dear Another Citizen:
"All men are created equal; that all have the rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; that when a government stops guaranteeing these rights, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness."

In the beginning of our GREAT NATION, the Revolutionary War was fought so that we all could worship as we pleased. To worship as we please is called religious freedom. There has always been conflict between the Protestants and Catholics. EXAMPLES: Massacre of St. Bartholomew's August 24, 1572; Council of Blood, 1567; Thirty Year's War, 1618 to 1648. I seriously suggest you dust off your history books and do some reading, the libraries have many good ones.

Every man has the right to worship as he chooses. Every religion has good points as well as weak ones. We all should always respect the head of all churches, but the love of GOD should always be placed FIRST. It seems some people have forgotten this.

The United States of America should be a nation that all of us should be proud of. Many men tried to make it what it is today so why not protect it? When in Rome do as the Romans—this is the United States, remember?

To Whomever Is Interested:—
I would like to publicly express my thanks to the Tri-Cities Ministerial Association for the Reformation Day Service presented for the public in the high school auditorium. It gave the Christians of this area an opportunity to renew their faith in the first and only true church of Christendom. Those who attended had much to gain. Those absent missed a spiritual opportunity. May the religious leaders of this community feel prompted to continue such united efforts for the Christian cause.

SAYS TARIFF IS BIG ISSUE OF CAMPAIGN
Editor of The Forum:

I am 75 years old, have lived in Granite City 50 years. The first time I came here, I was 13 years, next time I came I stayed. My uncle worked at the Stamp Works. Across the street was the Washburn Depot. No one was there to meet me.

The ticket agent went out on the platform and pointed across the empty lots to the Big Ten where I wanted to go. Very little work here at that time, but we had the 50 brick, double houses, the big six, the little 6. The Black Bear saloon, quite a number of buildings all named. Now we have lots of industries.

On Nov. 8th will be election. I'm not going to tell about either man running. But I want to tell you something my mother told me when she was young. If she was alive she would be 95.

Granite City PRESS-RECORD
Thurs., Nov. 3, 1960 Page 33

The Democrat party stands for Free Tariff. So if a Democrat gets in the White House, other countries can make and send over here produce cheaper than we can here at home. If a Republican gets in office other countries have to pay tariff to us, to make their products to send over here. Gives our industries a chance. For I understand very low wages are paid over seas. I can buy her a head scarf, hand rolled sewed edge for 50c. Over here we couldn't get one made that cheap. So think this over free tariff or paid tariff, closed factories at home or plenty of work.

WANTS GO PRECINCT LINES TO COINCIDE
Editor Press-Record:

I'm! It about time to get the precincts in Granite City straightened out to coincide with the county precincts? I'm registered in Precinct 21 for the county but the powers that be in Granite City must confuse the voters as much as possible and change the precincts. I'm in Precinct 20 in G. C.

If there was to be a city-county election would I vote in two polling places?

Why can't this be straightened out once and for all time?

Education Week, 3 School Holidays During November

Quad-City schools will observe three holidays during November—Veterans' Day on Friday, Nov. 11; Thanksgiving Day on Thursday, Nov. 24; and the day after Thanksgiving, Friday, Nov. 25.

A major highlight of the month will be observance of American Education Week on Nov. 6-12. Open houses and special programs are being planned, and many of the school Parent-Teacher Association units will change their meeting night for the month to conform with Education Week.

Still another event this month will be the end of the second six-week grade periods during Thanksgiving Week and, in some cases, the following week.

Junior Prom

The calendar at Granite City high school includes a touch-down dance Thursday, Nov. 10, a community concert Wednesday, Nov. 25, a vocal music department concert spaghetti dinner Thursday, Nov. 17, and the junior prom Saturday night, Nov. 19. Madison school district activities in November will feature dedication of the new Blair and Harris grade school buildings on Sunday, Nov. 13.

Madison junior high school students will attend a symphony concert in St. Louis Tuesday, Nov. 8.

American Education Week programs in Madison will include the following: Blair school, parade Monday, Nov. 7, and an open house and luncheon Wednesday, Nov. 9; Dunbar school, parade at 1:30 p. m. Monday, Nov. 7, and a luncheon at 7 p. m. Wednesday and a luncheon from 11:15 to 12:30 and open house from 9 a. m. to 3:40 p. m. Thursday, Nov. 10; Harris school, open house and Mothers' Club meeting Wednesday; and Louis Baer school, Mothers' Club meeting Wednesday.

Presidential Poll - Dick 13, Jack 6, Marilyn Monroe 1

Curvaceous screen lovely, Marilyn Monroe—much in the public eye but not an avowed candidate for office—ranked up one vote Monday night in the Granite City Kiwanis Club's presidential preference poll.

Balloting at the service club's dinner at the Elk's clubhouse, on the 20 Kiwanians voting cast 13 ballots to Vice-President Richard M. Nixon, with a half-dozen going to his Democratic opponent, Sen. John F. Kennedy.

On the more serious side, the club took under consideration plans to purchase additional wheelchairs, crutches and other equipment for its reserve of supplies made available free to the needy infirm and invalids of the Tri-Cities.

Members will have before them at next Monday night's meeting the slate of officers for 1961 to be presented by the nominations committee, headed by Sam W. Wolf.

The club will ballot on the panel to be installed the first of next year, according to President Francis Judd. He explained that the new officers' election will attend a school of instruction at Chicago Nov. 28 and 29, and be seated at formal installation rites early in January, 1961.

Judd, the outgoing president, will continue in office until that date. Year-end reports were made and forwarded by the service club to the district governor and to the Chicago headquarters of Elks International.

Motorist in Crash Faces Traffic Charge

A charge of failure to yield right-of-way was placed against David L. Anderson, 25, of 2725 Nameoki drive, following an accident Tuesday morning at 20th and Adams streets. He posted his driver's license as bond.

Police said the accident occurred as traffic was tied up at the 20th street railroad crossing. Anderson was going south on Adams street and was involved in a collision with an auto driven east on 20th street by James William Atchison, 33, of Marble, Mo.

No one was injured, but Atchison's small foreign car was towed away.

October Rainfall Normal—But Total For Year Down

Rainfall reached a normal level in the area during October, when precipitation was recorded on 11 days and totaled 3.27 inches, according to the gauge maintained by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers at the Chain of Lakes canal office.

Last month's rain, which far exceeded the slight 45-inch precipitation in September, increased the total for the year to 25.24 inches or 6.75 inches below normal for the first 10 months of the year.

The October rain included traces (less than a hundredth of an inch) on three days—Oct. 4, 9 and 20—and rainfall on eight days—70-inch on the third, 45-inch on the fifth, 20 on the eighth, 12 on the 16th, 75 on the 18th, 10 on the 26th, 65 on the 30th and 50 on the 31st.

The rain gauge is read daily at 8 a. m. and for Nov. 1, the morning reading was a mere .01 inch.

A breakdown of the area's rainfall by months follows: January—1.30 inch, February 1.37, March—2.73, April—2.86, May—4.27, June—4.39, July 3.47, August—1.13, September—45 and October—3.27.

Regular Use of Venice School Light Resumed

Regular use of a flashing red light signal was resumed Tuesday morning at the Venice school crossing on Broadway following a conference between police and school authorities.

The traffic light is operated by a crossing watchman, who then escorts school children across the four-lane street. The warning device is used in the morning, at noon and in the afternoon.

Attention was called Monday to the practice of not turning on the light, which had caused concern among some motorists over the safety of the watchman and youngsters.

Men who lack faith and courage are the first to become discouraged.

GC Trojans On Road For Non-Conference Games

Springfield Griffin Hosts MHS; Teams' Records Same

Madison, probably as far below top strength as the team has been all season, will complete the second leg of its home-and-home football series with Griffin high school tomorrow night in Springfield.

The all-boys school came here last season and closed the Trojans' season on a sour note by taking a 20-13 decision back to Springfield. An independent club, outside of the city series carried on with three other high schools in the state capital, Griffin has a 2-4-1 record this season, identical to that posted by Madison.

Two-Game Streak
Coached by Jim Williams, tomorrow night's hosts have won two in a row, after holding Springfield public high to a tie in the opening game of the season and then dropping four in a row.

Griffin turned back St. Teresa's 26-25 two weeks ago, and then tripped 10-7 at Springfield Peishans 27-0 last Friday.

Springing the club is paced by Right Halfback Charles Cicci, a senior who quarterbacked the club last year. Cicci, a 160-pound player, has tallied 35 points. Speedy tight (6-5) Halfback Cal Mills is also a "bread and butter" ballcarrier, however, and the leading ground-gainer in the backfield area with 455 yards in 64 carries, an average of 7.1 yards per carry.

Other backfield regulars are Quarterback John McRoberts and Fullback Peter Lee, who scored twice last week. Lee ran from right halfback in Madison last year and also tallied twice. The Griffins have stayed mainly on the ground this season, run out of a straight-T formation, and are fond of hitting the off-tackle hole.

Regulars Injured
Madison's best all-round offensive showing of the season in last Friday's 35-9 triumph over Highland was not accomplished without cost. Fullback Ed Young, who scored twice in the MWC victory, twisted his neck and may not even be heard the bus when the Trojans depart at 3 p.m. tomorrow.

Head Coach Glen Pickering said Young definitely will not see action even if he does make the trip. A doubtful starter is Right Tackle Mike Harris, who suffered a severely bruised back when he was kicked in the Highland game. George Stewart may go in Harris' spot, while Sophomore Terry Andrews was named by Pickering as the starting offensive fullback.

Pickering was pleased with the blocking displayed against Highland. "It's taken them most of the season, but they've finally learned their assignments," he said.

The probable starting offensive lineups:
Madison Pos. Griffin
Cooper LE Ensch
W. Woodfolk LT Wood
Recker LG Barrett
Barton C Dalsin
Stawar RG Young
Harris RT Drome
Walker HB Hens
Graville QB McRoberts
Griggs LT Mills
Kitchen RB Cicci
Andrews FB Lee

Season Tickets Are Available For MHS Home Cage Contests

Season tickets, 350 of them, will be made available to Madison high school basketball fans for the first time in the school's history this year, Principal John Palfrey said today.

The tickets, available beginning Monday to fans who call the high school office at TR. 7-1010, are in book form and entitle the holder to a seat in a special reserved section of the MHS gymnasium for each of the nine home games the Trojans will play during the coming season.

They are priced at $6 per book, and may be obtained by adults or students. The policy of admitting students on activity tickets will be retained, Palfrey said, but the holders of the season tickets will be shown preference for any post-season tournaments, should the Madison squad advance in regional, sectional and state play.

The season ticket reserved area will be the two center sections of the upstairs area at the MHS gym. The Trojans, under new Coach Earl McClanahan, open the 1960-61 season on Dec. 6, and play their first home game against Dupon on Dec. 13.

ED PETTY
Back of the Week

Petty, Walker Helped Madison Roll Up Big Score Against MHS

Madison's success against Highland in a Midwestern conference prep football game, Madison Friday was due chiefly to the best offense the Trojans have been able to muster all season, Head Coach Glen Pickering said today.

Ed Petty and Ed Walker, the back and lineman of the week, Walker was on the receiving end of three completed passes, one of them good for a touchdown and another for an extra point, as he and Quarterback Mick Graville hooked up for 28 of the 47 yards the Trojans gained through the air. The 175-pound senior also turned in a good game as a defensive end, Pickering said.

All conference end last season, Walker has been selected lineman of the week twice this year.

Petty, a 170-pound junior listed as a quarterback on the program, scored twice for Madison. Once was from a halfback position when he took a pitchout and scampered 24 yards, and the other was from his defensive secondary position, where he snugged a Highland nose and turned in a sparkling 65-yard run for a score.

The only point registered by the speedster from the quarterback slot was his conversion on a keeper play after Madison had taken 19-9 lead in the third quarter.

He played his best game of the year — by far — was Pickering's comment in singling out Petty for his first award of the season.

Defensive Linebacking Of Groboski, Hoeffek Top GC Grid Efforts

The play of two defensive linebackers, Bob Hoeffek and John Groboski, who between them were in on 33 tackles during the course of Granite City's 29-7 loss to Edwardsville last Thursday, were the top individual game efforts singled out by Warrior Coach Andy Sullivan today.

Specifically, the back of the week award went to Groboski, while Hoeffek was named the top lineman for the second straight week and the third time, this season. Groboski picked up his second selection of the year.

"I counted no less than 24 tackles which John helped out on Friday," Sullivan said, "and Hoeffek was in on 11."

Groboski also was credited with Granite City's only touchdown and a point-after-touchdown pass for gains of 44 and 36 yards from his halfback position as a member of the Warrior offensive platoon.

A 182-pound senior, Groboski has not let a leg injury which has been with him most of the season slow him down.

Griggs 12th On List

In addition to being a school record last week against Granite City, Edwardsville's Tony Penelton sewed up the area football scoring title, for all practical purposes.

His 108 points (also tops for any prep player in the state according to the latest figures) match the total of a Tiger player of another time, Cliff Hoppe, now head football coach at Civic Memorial high school in Bethalto.

The school record is likely to be broken by the Edwardsville fullback, who still has two remaining games this season. "The Tigers will play in Belleville tomorrow night and will close the campaign the following Friday at home against Roxana."

East St. Louis' Lincoln's Orville Townsend remained in second place among district scorers, with 66 points, but lost ground to Penelton, who outscored him 20-6 last weekend. Collinsville's Fred Riddle scored 14 points and moved up to tie Assumption's Ed Weiss for third place. Both have 60 points.

The crystal-garb upped the season's average to a more respectable level. Edwardsville in eight correct predictions in area prep football games considered, and offers no excuses for the three misses.

After all, who picked Assumption over East St. Louis? And Alton had to come from behind in the closing minutes to nip a Belleville team which we gave the edge.

Finally, on the minus side, a tie developed for the seventh straight week — this one a 15-13 deadlock between Western Military and Country Day — and since we're out it that way, wrong pick No. 3.

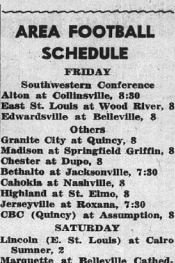

The favorites — Edwardsville, Madison, Collinsville, Dupo, Roxana, Lincoln, Marquette and Cathedral — didn't let us down, although there were some anxious moments where Dupo and Roxana were concerned.

The safest bet this weekend appears to be that the Press-Record prognosticator's average will fall from its respectable 74.1% average (60 correct selections in 81 tries), due to the large number of non-conference games on tap.

Granite City Warriors

Warriors Off To Quincy For Intersectional Game Friday

Granite City worked overtime in practice sessions this week to improve its offensive line in preparation for Friday night's intersectional football clash with the Blue Devils in Quincy.

The game "may be a case of the blind leading the blind," according to Quincy Head Coach Clell Wade, whose squad hasn't believed much of anybody during a so-so 2-5 season. The Warriors are a little better down the ladder with one victory in seven tries.

Both Kankakee and Both have lost to one common opponent this fall — Collinsville. The Blue Devils dropped a 32-13 decision in Collinsville while Granite City was blanked just one week later at the same location, 24-0.

The Blue Devils, who like to run from the wing-T formation, man up front, topped up 235-pound Right Tackle Dave Hagg, Wade will use a fullback, Bob Black (195) at sophomore in a backfield which averages 170 pounds per player.

"We will be working on our passing game, but of course our passing game hasn't looked that good. When our passer has been getting most of the work of the throws are on the mark, but pass protection generally has been poor."

Hagg Moved Up
Sullivan called offensive line play against Edwardsville a "poor," and worked his offensive guards especially hard this week. Charles Hagg, a converted halfback, gets a starting assignment at right guard tomorrow night in the only change planned by the Warrior mentor.

Thirty-two Granite City players will make the long trip to Quincy, including six or seven sophomores, who as of yet are unnamed. The squad will leave by bus at noon tomorrow, and will stay overnight after the game with the independent Quincy club.

The Blue Devils, in the midst of a slump, were whipped last week by a good Decatur club, 20-0, while the comparative Warriors against Kankakee would seem to make tomorrow's 8 p.m. contest a toss-up, although Quincy has the home field advantage.

Other members of Wade's starting backfield are Quarterback Dick Rineberg and Halfbacks Dave Carper and Jim Reynolds. Reynolds fills the wing-back position in a formation Granite City last went against when it topped Madison 7-0 early in the season for the Redmen's first and only victory so far this fall.

CONCRETE DOG STOLEN

A concrete boxer dog, which was a lawn ornament of unknown weight, was stolen from the front porch at the home of Mrs. Herbert Beckman, 2316 Iowa street, on Monday night, according to a report made Tuesday to Granite City police. The value of the ornament was not listed on the report.

Hampton To Join In University Torch Run

Charles Hampton, 1035 Bissell street, Venice, a senior student at the Southern Illinois University center in East St. Louis, will be among those participating in a marathon run this week to promote passage of the state universities bond issue Nov. 8.

Hampton went to Chicago yesterday in connection with the project and will return home Sunday. Another local university student, Morris Barefield of Madison, also will take part, it was announced previously.

Each runner will cover a half-mile distance, carrying lighted torches from the state universities to Chicago, where Gov. Stratton will receive them in a ceremony calling attention to the need for passage of the university construction program.

Rethmeier commented that some people consider deserting a total of 5032 acres of cropland.

Fire Prevention Code Under Study By GC Council Members

Additional copies of the Fire Prevention Code, prepared by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, have been made available to Granite City aldermen who have it on first reading.

The ordinance setting forth the code and authorizing the establishment of a Bureau of Fire Prevention within the fire department was placed on first reading two weeks ago. A copy of the proposed code now is on file in the city clerk's office for public inspection.

To be outlined in the ordinance are boundaries for districts in which the storage of flammable liquids in outside, above-ground tanks and bulk storage of liquefied petroleum gases are to be prohibited or restricted. The code also covers the storage of explosives and blasting agents.

The suggested code of the NFBU contains 210 pages, and the city is currently studying the 1960 version, which prescribes regulations governing conditions hazardous to life and property from fire.

Inspections Prescribed
The provisions are to apply equally to new and existing conditions, and would authorize the chief of the fire department, chief of the bureau of fire prevention or any inspector of the two city divisions to enter any building or premises "at all reasonable hours" for the purpose of making any inspection or investigation which are deemed necessary under the code.

Under the proposed code, the fire chief is to call for the inspection of all buildings and premises, except the interiors of dwellings, as often as may be necessary.

3270 Transported By School Buses In Area

Quad-City public school districts are transporting 3270 children daily, a report by County Superintendent R. L. Tridgion on 1960-61 bus transportation disclosed today.

Of this total, 2786 are taken a distance of over one and a half miles and 484 are transported less than one and a half miles. State law requires transporting those living over a mile and a half from available transportation routes, provided that they are also that far or farther from the assigned school.

Quad-City school buses travel 1066 miles a day, including 789 over pavement, 281 over gravel or oil and 16 over dirt.

Contrasted to GC, Madison

The report notes that Granite City and Madison schools have contracts with a commercial carrier, while the Venice district operates three buses and employs three regular drivers and two substitute drivers.

In Madison county, which includes 15 public school districts as well as private and parochial schools, there are 122 regular buses, and six drivers for nine station wagons and small vehicles.

Pupils transported total 13,479—12,051 for more than a mile and a half and 1428 for less than that distance.

7234 Miles Daily In County
The county statistics further show that buses travel 7234 miles daily, including 3839 over pavement, 3509 on gravel or oiled roads and 76 on dirt roads. Small vehicles travel 319 miles each day—221 on pavement and 98 on gravel or oil.

A breakdown for the local districts on pupils bused long and short distances follows: Granite City community unit, 2113 and 200, total of 2313; Madison, 400 and none, total of 400; and Venice, 273 and 284, total of 557.

A similar listing on miles traveled daily over pavement, gravel or oil and dirt follows: Granite City, 700, 262 and none, total of 962; Madison, 10, 19 and none, total of 29; and Venice, 79, none and 16, total of 95.

Scout District Recognition Dinner Saturday

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p. m., and the program will include a talk by Rev. David B. Maxton, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church of Granite City, election of new district officers; transaction of other annual business; and presentation of training and service awards.

The meeting is intended primarily to give recognition to unit leaders and other scouts whose efforts jointly make the scouting program possible.

The awards to be presented will include certificates of merit for three or more years of outstanding service. Completion of training programs also will be recognized.

VOTE "YES" UNIVERSITIES BOND PROPOSAL TUESDAY

PASSAGE OF THE STATE BOND ISSUES TUESDAY, NOV. 8 CAN MARK THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA IN THE QUAD-CITIES

Parents: Have you considered the "CASH VALUE" of having the new State University located in our immediate area?

Cost of sending students to college is estimated in excess of $1550 a year nationally, and conservative figures indicate that it costs $700 more to attend an out-of-town school than a "commuter" university. Current expenses for a typical student at Southern Illinois University total $1109—$184 for tuition and fees, $175 room rent, $573 food and $175 miscellaneous, including school supplies.

The 4300 currently enrolled at the Southwestern Illinois Campus include 450 or about 11% from the Quad-Cities. Enrollment projections for the new university and its centers range as high as 18,000 and 26,000 in the coming years. Assuming that the 11% average holds and that students would average 12,500 to 13,000 during the next quarter century, again a conservative estimate, it seems probable that the direct savings to Quad-Cityans could top $1,000,000 a year—the $700 individual figure times 1400 or more local students.

The proposal thus offers not only a $25 million investment in university facilities, but a $25 million gain for parents and students during the 1961-85 bond issue period.

Added to the other benefits, including the addition of hundreds of faculty members as residents of Illinois Metropolitan Area communities, this $50 million gain seems well worth the maximum of 10 cents a month that the bond issue might cost Illinois citizens. Even this dime might not be spent; state officials say the bonds could be met from the state's regular revenue.

VOTE "YES" TUESDAY - IT CAN MEAN A $33,000,000 INVESTMENT FOR A NEW UNIVERSITY & MENTAL HOSPITAL FACILITIES IN THIS AREA!

MANY THOUSANDS of students and faculty members moving into the Illinois Metropolitan Area, helping immeasurably to make it not only a good but a better place to live. Cultural, musical, recreational and civic advances alone have transformed communities adjacent to other universities.

BADLY NEEDED as they are, to meet crucial university and public welfare needs of this area, the two projects can do much more than meet existing needs. Imagine the impact on local prosperity from millions being spent each year in salaries for faculty members, hospital workers and other employees. Imagine the effect of yearly expenditures for operating and maintenance costs, plus future expansion and improvements.

A HUGE NEW INDUSTRY could have no greater impact than the two construction programs. They will bring more construction, more jobs, more residents, more spending.

INCREASED RECOGNITION and stature for the entire vicinity surrounding a major four-year state university. The campus site is located in the Sunset Hill bluff area immediately east of the Quad-Cities.

FINANCIALLY SOUND from the taxpayer's viewpoint—payments made for no more than is currently being spent on piecemeal improvements—construction carried out at less cost now than is likely in the future—less spending necessary for maintaining old and inadequate facilities.
